

“The Old Lion” by Mike Eserkaln www.eserkaln.com

The Old Lion sits
as old lions do
in his cave - secluded
and hidden from view.

Out of Pride
and necessity
choice and chance
solitude of his own making and circumstance.

Free to roam,
but never venturing forth.
He stares at the stars,
and remembers their birth.